

Call for Nominations

Wyoming Economic Development Association 2019 Innovation Award

Each year, WEDA recognizes participants involved in a Wyoming innovative economic development project that highlights best practices, and significantly impacts a Wyoming community and its citizens. It is intended to celebrate the partnerships, innovative aspects and economic development impact of a project.

To nominate, please fill out the attached project outline discussing these factors and the project's impact on economic development, including:

- The factors that make this project innovative, such as its use of creative funding mechanisms, efforts to create efficiencies or reduce costs, unique partnership models, techniques to build resilience or enhancing your region's quality of life;
- Each partner's role in the project;
- How partners came together to plan, develop and share the cost to achieve desired results for a specific purpose, and;
- An outline of the project's accomplishments or results to date, including the economic development impact on a community or region.
- Articles, letters of endorsement, photos, and other support material may accompany the nomination to support documentation of the benefits the project has created.

Additionally;

- Only WEDA members are eligible to nominate
- Nominations may include projects the nominator was involved in
